Customer Reviews

I'm not a fan of Romance novels to say the least, but I was asked by the Author Natasha House to review this book and to give my honest opinion. That being the case, I have to say that I was pleasantly surprised by this book. The plot is fantastic, the characters are likable (well most of them anyways; read the book and you'll understand why I say that), and the message of Grace, Love, Forgiveness, and Redemption is something that we all need to be reminded of. This story made me laugh out loud in many places, and as much as I hate to admit it being a man, it also brought me to tears. I found myself going through the whole spectrum of human emotions as I followed Zoe in her quest for love, but also in her longing to follow the desires of both her earthly father, and her Heavenly Father. I felt joy, anger, sadness, shock, and awe while reading this book. I felt Zoe's pain and longing, but also felt her love and happiness as she comes to rely on God and in His plan for her life. I'd also like to state, that as a Pastor, I found her scripture use and message to be spot on. Through this use Mrs. House teaches and reminds us of the real meaning of God's love and Grace. It's been a long time since I've read a book that not only pulls you into the pages, but that also makes you feel the emotions that I experienced. Well done Natasha, Well done!

Wow, I was not expecting this awesome book when I began reading this. My sister recommended this book to me. It has a deep message but what a great story. Couldn't put this book down, finished in one day. Download this one NOW!

I really enjoyed this book. I am not usually a fan of religious books or romances so I wasn't sure what to expect. Zoe is single and still living with her parents. Zoe's dad is a preacher and a very strict father. He has picked out a husband for Zoe but she has no interest in the creepy rich guy who attends their church. Zoe is smitten with Branson, a former porn star and unmarried father of three beautiful little girls. I read most of this book in one sitting. I was unable to put it down as I followed the unexpected twists and turns Zoe's life took as she searched for a husband. I highly recommend this well written book and I hope there is a sequel in the future.

I just finished the book about 10 minutes ago. I started it this morning and really couldn't put it down.

I crawled in to bed and just kept reading. I am glad that I had kleenex beside me because I definitely needed it. What an amazing and powerful book about God's love for us and the grace he gives us freely. As I read through the book I could really feel what the characters were feeling from the pain and hurt, to anger, to love and peace. I was blown away. The author really put her heart in to the book. You can sense the love that she has for God through each character's existence. The love that the Father shows us all is brought to life in each sentence and word of this book. I highly recommend it to anyone. I can't wait to read more!!!

GRACE ALIVE is a nice, sweet romance. It's the kind of book you like to read while cuddled under a blanket. Zoe Reed is twenty-six, unmarried, still living with her parents, and working a dead-end job. Her father is the preacher at a church that believes in convicting everybody of sin. Zoe's life is a hopeless mess until she meets Branson. With young children hovering around him, Zoe struggles with her heart. He's handsome and sweet, but how can he be Mr. Right when everything about him is wrong? This novel is well written and keeps you turning the pages. Zoe is a great character who is full of life and emotion.

This book was a good book a great inspiration I started it less than two hours ago and I've read the whole thing this book teaches us things like #1 don't judge people by their pasts #2 believe in God no matter Trust in him no matter what he will always lead you in the right directions

Gosh my review on this book is long overdue. I've been meaning to post it, but life has been hectic. That being said now on to my review....First off I have to say this is not the usual type of book I would read. Sure I love to read romances. But I wasn't sure what to expect when I started to read this. But what I got wasn't what I was expecting and not in a bad way. This book was so much more. This book was the first book I've read from Mrs. House. I love a book that has a plot that captures my attention from the beginning and holds it till the end. And Mrs. House does that. She had me laughing from the beginning to the end, in a good way. Right from the start Zoe's character had me laughing. Zoe is smart and kind and funny, though I do have to admit she might be a little naive about some things. Also I feel in love with Branson's character right away. You could tell that he really had made a change in his life and was trying to good on what he was handed in life. There were a couple of character's in the book that I tried to like, but just couldn't find myself liking even in the end. You'll see what I mean if you read it. I even tried to put myself in their positions and couldn't find myself doing what they did. I will say this though this book has a lot of scripture in it and I thought that would throw the book off for me. But it didn't and it really worked for this book and what it was about. This book is really about Faith, Trust and Second Chances. I've already recommended this book to a lot of people. Definitely give this book 5 stars!!!
