Christian Books: Failing With Style: How God Can Turn Your Mess Into A Message

Synopsis

You're about to discover on how God Can Turn Your Perceived Failures Around! Here Is A Preview Of What You'll Learn...How To Move Forward In Life - Regardless on How Many Mistakes You Have Made In LifeCommon Lies - Know what is preventing you from moving forward in lifeMourning - How mourning can actually help you move forward in lifeReleasing Control - Knowing God sees the big picture of your life, He sees the whole forest when we only see the trees Quitting - How God can lift you when you feel like quitting The Use of Your Enemies - How God can use your enemies to propel you forward in lifeStrength in Weakness - How God can turn your weakness into your strengthAnd Much Much More! We all make mistakes, but mistakes are only temporary and we have to learn from it. But sometimes we tend to hang onto our mistakes and not move forward in life. Remember that we are only human and we are bound to make mistakes. Look at Jesus' disciples, they were mostly sinners but yet God chose them to spread the good news. You are not your mistakes, do not let a small part of your life become a huge part of your life. These mistakes you made are preparing you for something bigger and better, it is up to us if we want to learn from these lessons. When you ask God to have patience, God will test your patience. It's uncomfortable, but that is part of growing up spiritually. You might lose your patience on your spouse, children, or friends and call yourself a very impatient man. But keep in mind that God is polishing you as a person and the mistake of being impatient is all part of the learning process. Trust God will turn your mistakes around, and see your life move forward and get better. So go ahead and fail with style! Knowing that you will become a masterpiece that God intended you to be.
