Arthur Corey gave the world a gift in this book! I've treasured it since I first read it 1969. The first reviewer points out that Christian Science Class Instruction was not available to the general public - which is true - and why Corey's book is so important for "a Truth seeking soul." Mary Baker Eddy founded Christian Science and "hands down" is the Ph.D. of metaphysics. Her teachings were not only astounding for her time but are still beyond the comprehension of most sincere seeking metaphysicians today. I'm profoundly grateful to both of these great master-teachers and leaders.

Arthur Corey was accomplished in many ways, including writing and acting, before becoming a CS practitioner. Following the publication of Christian Science Class Instruction, he practiced, taught, and published works on Christian Science independently. In 1945, Corey published what were considered to be the well-guarded class teachings of C. S. - teachings that had previously been given exclusively to members. Drawing upon notes from classes of twenty-eight early teachers, as well as other unpublished works, he gives an accurate account of class instruction. His book was published to make the teachings of CS available to all. He takes the reader step-by-step through class in an orderly and thought-provoking dissertation.
