This is an interesting story about the origin of the Budha, but it is not the same story that was read to the young American boy in the film of the same name. It is a VERY different story written by the same author/script writer. .

Within: An Introduction To Buddhism for Young and Old
Giovanni Mastrangelo does a masterful job at re-telling the age-old story of how Prince Siddhartha became The Buddha and he does it in a charming style that can be easily enjoyed by young and old alike. This book was shown in the 1993 movie, Little Buddha staring Keanu Reeves, Bridget Fonda, Ruocheng Ying & Chris Isaak that was based on the true story of the discovery that a young boy in Seattle, WA was the reincarnation of a great Buddhist teacher. There are few books of this nature in circulation that present the story for children so effectively and as a practicing Tibetan Buddhist following the path of the Bodhisattva I highly recommend this one for any family with Buddhist leanings whether they have children or not.-Michael Jaquish: Author of 'A Monk Without A Monastery' & 'Where Did We Come From?'
