Why Confess To A Priest? A Dialogue Between A Priest And A Protestant

Synopsis

You affirm that you are a Christian, yet you deny the doctrine of Confession. Isn't that rather inconsistent? Inconsistent? What do you mean? Why can't a man be a Christian without believing in Confession? Christians believe in the Apostles' Creed, and make its recitation part of their service. Now that Creed states distinctly the doctrine of the forgiveness of sins. That is why I said it is inconsistent to deny Confession and affirm oneself a Christian.
