Customer Reviews

I have read this book to my 3rd Grade students as part of a Baba Yaga comparative literature unit for several years now, and they really love the story. It is a timeless classic! The illustrations look a bit dated in their style, but the charm and wit are great. We love to read multiple versions of these Baba Yaga stories and compare them.

Nice book, out of print, was recommended to me by another so was happy to find it here. Nice fable about how kindnesses can enrich one's own life

My class of 4/5 year olds love all the Baba Yaga stories and they really enjoyed this one.

I used this book (in conjunction with other Baba Yaga books) to make a lesson plan about folklore. Children really like learning about fairy tales and folklore. There are many lessons in this book.
