Customer Reviews

It reminded me of those cheesy, low-budget, mock-busters that you see on Netflix from time to time (like Transmorphers or Alien vs Hunter). Don't expect an intricate plot line or compelling character development. DO expect A LOT of fantastic shark munching gore. This book is mostly a compilation of Grizzlysharks eating people, basically Youtube level story telling. But you don't buy a comic book called "Grizzlyshark" for it's rich and riveting story, you buy it because it's absurd and over the top. This book is entertaining and disturbing all at the same time. Overall, I have mixed feelings about it. This book collects Grizzlyshark #1-3 and is written and penciled by Ryan Ottley.
