Customer Reviews

Overall good book. Bought it not realizing that it's meant for an older sibling--teaching him/her to play nice with a younger sibling. That aside it's a good book. Not too advanced, plenty of colorful pictures.

We think this series is wonderful ! The male characters in the Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood series of DVD's and books play very active roles in their families and communities. It is wonderful to see this and the hugs and encouragement that Dads & Grandpa's openly demonstrate to their family. Thanks again for offering our children the opportunity to see a warm and loving community spirit!

Should've read read the description. This book is about Daniel and learning to allow his little sister to play with him.

My 5yr old loves this show and was excited to get the books in the mail. Absolutely loves them.
